Optional programs

Monday evening

We have booked a table for 20 at Instant Cafe (1065 Bp, Nagymező utca 38). Please contact Zsófia Vas if you need help. <http://instant.co.hu/en>

Wednesday

13.00 : A guided tour and a shuttle bus will bring you through the most important tourist attractions and the history of the city will be introduced to you. THE NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS IS LIMITED TO SHUTTLE CAPACITIES. We will favour foreign guests and ask the understanding of Hungarian colleagues.

18.00: Budapest Spa

Gellért (1118 Bp, Kelenhegyi út 4. – the tour ends here). Ticket costs 4900 HUF, the spa is open until 20.00. <http://www.gellertbath.hu/>

Lukács (1023 Bp, Frankel Leó u. 25-29. – BUS 86 from the tour ending point). Ticket costs 2000 HUF, the spa is open until 21.00. <http://en.lukacsfurdo.hu/>

Thursday evening

Walking tour and social event: Our tour will start then end in a booked room of Szimpla Kert, a ruin bar frequently listed in the global Top 5 by Lonely Planet. You can leave your belongings in the room and a waiter will help us to get easy access to drinks. <http://www.szimpla.hu/en>

If you stay over the weekend

The mountains around Buda and the town of Szentendre (30 minutes away from the city) are worth to visit. There are plenty of cultural events in the city: I personally recommend Frissek MiniFestival of young Hungarian artists on November 16 evening at one of the freshest scene of Budapest creative life (<http://frissek.wordpress.com/english/>).
